

THE POOL OF LONDON

W. & A. T. 1905

Raphael Tuck & Sons' 'Oilette' Postcard No. 5319.

LL3396 TUCK'S POST CARD

CARTE

POSTAL

(FOR ADDRESS ONLY)

The Pool of London.—London Bridge divides the Thames into 'above' and 'below' Bridge. Down-stream is the Port of London, the part immediately adjacent to the Bridge being the Pool. Magnificent views in both directions may be had here, and our picture shows the splendid situation of the Empire City.

C 9 PA 12.9